N. 3115

Attention:

Subject: Miscellaneous items

25X1A6a

1. I am sorry to have to report that Clare's mother passed away this past week and Clare is back in Washington and will not return to Europe at this time. Therefore, please cancel any arrangements you had made for her. As I had written a short note to I'll drop him a line soon.

2. training is progressing in a most effective manner, including considerable attention to the USSR side. As you may know we are urging a much closer working arrangement between the two individuals so that each can backstop the other. It will also provide for a more effective use of the professional skills of each person. Dick is pleased with the way things are developing and I'm sure you will agree with me that it will be a step forward.

3. I noted that your trip had been completed successfully. We await your reactions.
